DESMOND TUTU

5 FACTS

- Born in South Africa in 1931.
- Desmond Tutu was a Bishop in the The Anglican Church of Southern Africa.
- He was a important leader of the non-violent ressistence struggle against apartheid.
- Desmond Tutu received the Peace Prize in 1984.
- Died 26 December 2021.

WHAT WAS APARTHEID?

Apartheid means racial segregation, or "separated" and was a political system in South Africa between 1948 and 1994. The Apharteid regime was a (racist) system that separated people by skin color, so that whites would have the greatest power.

MAKE A BANNER

Think of a cause that would bring about change fo the better in your community or school. Imaging that you are peacfully demonstrating on this matter and you want to produce a banner to represent your cause.

What would your demonstration banner look like? Make a slogan and decorate your poster the way you want it to look!

DRAW A LINE

The words and their meanings are listed in random order.
Can you match each word with the correct meaning? Draw a line!

Segregation

Apartheid

Demonstration

Non-violence

Dialogue

Desmond Tutu

Nelson Mandela

Listening

A policy or system of segregation or discrimination on the grounds of race in South Africa.

A march or gathering which people participate in to show their opposition to, or their support for something.

The use of peaceful means, not force, to bring about political or social change.

To take part in a conversation or discussion to resolve a problem.

A South African archbishop and a leader of the non-violent resistance against apartheid. He received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1984.

A South African political activist who spent 27 years in prison for his fight against apartheid. He received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1993. The year after, he became president of South Africa, and apartheid was officially ended.

Making an effort to hear something; being alert and ready to hear something.

The action or state of setting someone or something apart from other people or things, or being set apart.